FAQs

1. What will I learn in Drama?

The drama programme has four focus areas, namely:
Performance studies (acting, directing, voice, dance/movement, singing, choreography, design);

Performing arts management (career management, entrepreneurial skills, events management, stage management, project management, basic financial management);

Applied drama/theatre (community theatre, educational drama/theatre, theatre for development, playmaking, using drama/theatre as teaching methodologies);

Performance and Media (camera-acting, radio, scriptwriting/playwrighting, editing, sound/lighting operation and design, digital film-making).

All courses have practical and theoretical components.

2. What are the admission requirements?
A senior certificate with endorsement; M score of 11 or a TPT score of 26; Afrikaans or English Higher Grade or Standard Grade with at least a 3 (40%-49%); a successful audition.

3. When are the auditions and how do I prepare?
After being admitted to UP, the Drama Department will communicate (in writing) the necessary information to prospective Drama students. Auditions take place in August for admission in the following year.

4. Where do I apply for the course?
At the CSC.

5. When do applications close?
Applications close at the end of June.

6. What is the cost of the course?
Please contact the CSC.

7. Are there any special arrangements regarding accommodation when choosing to study Drama?
When applying for accommodation in a residence, please indicate that accommodation on the Main Campus is preferable for Drama students. It is preferable for drama students to live near campus as students often need to work long and late hours on campus.

8. Where can I get bursary information?
Please contact the CSC.
