

Welcome to the University of Pretoria Camerata

The TUKS CAMERATA was officially established on 19 March 1968. Its mission is to make a contribution towards the cultural development of the student corps and the cultural enrichment of the community by means of choral singing. The Choir also endeavours to promote a worthy image of the University of Pretoria through striving towards the highest possible artistic standards, together with a code of conduct that meets the high requirements of companionship. The Choir operates under the auspices of the Department of UP Arts of the University of Pretoria. The conductors, Adolf Theron, Willem van Tonder, Prof Petru Gräbe, Prof Johann van der Sandt, and from January 2009, Christo Burger, have always upheld high artistic values. The Choir consists of 70 members. For more information on Tuks Camerata, please visit the History page.

News

Open Day 2013: School learners encouraged to choose University of Pretoria - 20/05/2013

□ Making a choice to enrol at a university, and deciding which university to attend are the most important decisions any young person can make in their lifetime. Therefore, make a good decision: choose the University of Pretoria. □

[\[Read More\]](#)

TuksGolf Training Centre officially opened at the University of Pretoria - 17/05/2013

The University of Pretoria prides itself on its publicly recognised achievements pertaining to its various sporting fraternities. These achievements can be attributed to the University's sporting facilities, which are of the highest quality among South African universities. To add to its quality achievements, the University of Pretoria, through TuksSport and the High Performance Centre (hpc), has now officially opened a golf training centre.

[\[Read More\]](#)

South African law professor to report to the United Nations on Lethal Robots - 16/05/2013

South African human rights law professor, Christof Heyns, will submit a widely anticipated report on Lethal Autonomous Robots (LARs) to the United Nations (UN) Human Rights Council on 29 May 2013. Prof Heyns, from the University of Pretoria (UP), was appointed as UN Special Rapporteur on extra-judicial, summary or arbitrary executions in 2010. During last year, he conducted worldwide research on the question whether states should be allowed to use LARs - weapons that, once deployed, can use lethal force without further human intervention - during war, or peace.

[\[Read More\]](#)

A continental Leadership Transformation Programme established - 15/05/2013

The African Union's New Partnership for Africa's Development (NEPAD), the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and the Albert Luthuli Centre for Responsible Leadership (ALCRL) recently co-hosted a roundtable aimed at establishing a continental leadership transformation programme.

[\[Read More\]](#)

Local politicians, international experts and prominent thought-leaders to rethink governance processes - 15/05/2013

Clr Kgosientso Ramokgopa, Executive Mayor of Tshwane, international academics and activists such as Susan George as well as prominent local voices like Prince Mashele, Mzuqisi Qobo and Andries Bezuidenhout are to take part in a week-long think tank on governance at the University of Pretoria (UP).

[\[Read More\]](#)

Centre for Human Rights course targets African judges as Optional Protocol comes into force - 14/05/2013

Judges from five African countries (Botswana, Malawi, South Africa, Tanzania and Uganda) joined participants from 20 other African countries for a course on socio-economic rights, presented by the Centre for Human Rights at the University of Pretoria from 6 to 10 May 2013.

[\[Read More\]](#)

Empathic Communication and Dementia: Internationally Recognised Memory Bridge Programme comes to South Africa - 14/05/2013

Memory Bridge, an innovative intergenerational programme that diminishes the social and emotional isolation of older persons with dementia, will be implemented in Pretoria from 13 to 28 May.

[\[Read More\]](#)