UNIVERSITEIT VAN PRETORIA
UNIVERSITY OF PRETORIA
YUNIBESITHI YA PRETORIA

Communication Pathology News

World Kangaroo Mother Care Day celebrated by final year students
Prof Alta Kritzinger
Posted on 21 May 2013

Staff and students from the Department of Communication Pathology at the University of Pretoria are involved in one of the most important evide low birth weight babies in the world.

The final year students are participating in Kalafong Hospital as audiologists and speech-language therapists in this very effective neonatal meth babies.

[Read More]

Launching iPad Conversation Group
Glenn Goldblum
Posted on 20 May 2013

The UP Conversation group recently launched the use of iPad's as part of their group therapy sessions.

[Read More]

Vestibular disorders workshop - 25 July 2013
Dept of Communication Pathology
Posted on 17 May 2013

International and national experts will present during this workshop on vestibular disorder assessment and management at the Dept of Commun

[Read More]

Surprise and his hearing aid
Communication Pathology
Posted on 24 Apr 2013

The story of Surprise and his new hearing aid. He is a different boy now. He is playing, participating and even talking!

[Read More]

Fulbright Professor hosted at University of Pretoria
Dept of Communication Pathology
Posted on 12 Apr 2013

Professor from the University of Washington, USA, received a Fulbright scholarship to conduct research at the University of Pretoria in cooperati
Department of Communication Pathology

[Read More]

«View Archives | Subscribe to Department of Communication Pathology's news feed

Comments

Post Comment
Items marked with a * are required
At least one of the items marked with  must be entered.

Your Contact Information

Name *

Your Email address *

Subject *

Message *

Security image *

Security Code
Please enter the text in the security image *

Submit Feedback