Aeromaritime International Management Services (Pty) Ltd (trading as AIMS) is a company formed 17 years ago to provide the Altron Group of companies with the services of Customs Clearing for both Imports and Exports, International Forwarding on both Seafreight and Airfreight, Local and National freight Distribution and cross-border Roadfreight to neighboring countries in Africa.

AIMS offers a full bursary to qualify a student to study BCOM Logistics Management at a South African University. Applicants for this bursary will need to be strong in English, Mathematics and Science, and have a strong interest in logistics. The bursary includes mentorship and vacation work.

Education & Requirements:

- Applicants must be in possession of a grade 12 exemption certificate or first year student studying towards BCom Logistics
- Applicants can be in possession of BCom Logistics first year results, registered as second year students studying towards BCom Logistics.
- High achiever
- South African Citizen that reside in the Gauteng area
- BEE candidate (preferably female)
- Preferably from a disadvantaged background

Contractual requirements:

- The student is expected to enter into a contractual agreement with AIMS (PTY) Ltd.
- This agreement contains all the general provisions related to the bursary, including a service binding clause compelling the student on completion of the qualification to enter and remain in the company, AIMS (PTY) Ltd, for a minimum of 12 months for every year of study in which a bursary was paid out to the student.

Fees:

This bursary scheme includes:

- all tuition fees
- accommodation fees, if staying at university residence or around
- books
- small monthly allowance

The fees for related expenses such as books are paid directly to the student, while class fees are paid to the educational institution except in the case where the student has already paid in advance. Where the student has been paid directly, receipts for outlays will be required.
